

Issues around school and vocational choice - online counselling for parents in different languages

Are you new to Baden-Württemberg and still feel unsure of the German language? Do you have questions about school or vocational education for your children? Then you are welcome to take part in a free online counselling session with interpretation. The Parents' Foundation Baden-Württemberg (Gemeinnützige Elternstiftung Baden-Württemberg) regularly offers online counselling in various languages. Experienced consultants take the time to answer your questions about school and vocational choice - they are supported by interpreters of the respective language.

You can take part in the counselling online (via Zoom) on the following dates. We will be there for you during the indicated period:

English 27.01.26 – 17.00pm - 19.00pm
